Sukantara Cascade Resorts & Spa

Voted 'Top of Paradise Resort' in Thailand by the TAT

The Sukantara Cascade Resorts & Spa is beautiful retreat in the north of Thailand. Recently voted by the Tourism Authority of Thailand as the country's 'top paradise resort', this luxurious boutique property is a must for visitors to Chiang Mai. Natural and secluded, this idyllic resort is a world away from the frenetic pace of city life.

The backdrop to the Sukantara Cascade Resorts & Spa is one of unbridled natural beauty. Set beside a mountain stream in the verdant highlands of Chiang Mai, the mountain water cascades over boulders creating tiered waterfalls just below the Lanna-Balinese-style guest cottages. The landscape is simply breathtaking.

The resort offers guests the chance to experience nature firsthand without foregoing the luxuries of a fabulous resort. Whether lounging on the cottage veranda, listening to sound of the stream and bird song, enjoying traditional Thai massage, hiking mountain trails, visiting an orchid farm, elephant school or golf-course, the entire Sukantara experience is one of discovery, adventure and relaxation.

Guestrooms at the resort are designed in the Balinese and Lanna style and blend in with the natural environment. Six Deluxe Cottages and one Suite Pool Villa constructed from wood feature high Lanna-style high ceilings and are surrounded by beautiful tropical forest scenery. All of décor and furniture in the rooms has been made by native craftsmen using local materials and designs. Each of the Sukantara guestrooms contains first-class amenities for a comfortable and enjoyable stay.

Chiida Spa

The resort's Chiida Spa provides guests with the ultimate spa experience and is perfect for re-balancing and improving general wellbeing. Set within the natural surroundings of Sukantara, the spa is a tranquil tropical hideaway where the sound of water complements the soothing aromas of traditional Thai herbs and spices. Relax and unwind; this idyllic environment provides true escape from the stressful world of work and everyday life.

The entire spa rejuvenating spa experience focuses on relaxation and rejuvenation. From the welcoming herbal tea to the fresh lotus flower glimpsed from the massage bed, no detail has been overlooked. Soothing music, intoxicating aromas, a tranquil ambiance and professional spa therapists ensure that guests enjoy the finest service. The extensive spa menu features treatments devised by professional certified spa practitioners with years of experience in a Thai herbal spa.

A stay at the Sukantara Cascade Resorts & Spa is a journey to the heart of the Chiang Mai, one of Thailand's most beautiful and culturally rich provinces.
